

Stephanie Brantley, DVM

Dr. Stephanie Brantley received her Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree from the Atlantic Veterinary College at University of Prince Edward Island in 2006. In 2007, she completed an internship in small animal medicine, surgery, and emergency at Michigan Veterinary Specialists. She spent a number of years in general practice, including two years of feline-exclusive practice, then found her calling in emergency medicine while living in Phoenix, Arizona. Her special interests include feline medicine, infectious diseases, and behavior. Dr. Brantley grew up in the Houston area, and after all of her travels, she has decided to move back home to be closer to her family. She spent two valuable years at VETMED Specialty and Emergency Center in Arizona prior to joining the Gulf Coast Animal Emergency team.

Dr. Brantley shares her home with her two cats, Homer and Ivy. Outside of work, she enjoys spending time with her family, traveling, and SCUBA diving. She is an avid baseball fan.
