

Katrine Voie, DVM, MS, DACVD

Dermatology & Allergy

Dr. Katrine Voie earned her Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree from Louisiana State University School of Veterinary Medicine in 2008. She then completed a one-year small animal medicine and surgery internship at Cummings School of Veterinary Medicine at Tufts University, followed by a dermatology internship at Red Bank Veterinary Hospital. Dr. Voie went on to complete a dermatology residency at the University of Illinois, where she also earned a master's degree, graduating in 2013. She became a board-certified veterinary dermatologist the same year.

Outside of her professional work, Dr. Voie enjoys practicing yoga, baking, and spending quality time with her pets, friends, and family. She and her Bloodhounds engage in conformation, tracking, mantrailing, and rally, finding joy in these shared activities.
