

Kali Sherman, DVM

Emergency & Critical Care

Dr. Kali Sherman earned her Bachelor of Science in Animal-Dairy-Poultry Science from Louisiana State University in 2014 before pursuing her Doctor of Veterinary Medicine at Ross University School of Veterinary Medicine, graduating in 2019. During her studies, she completed her clinical rotation at the University of Florida, gaining valuable experience.

Following veterinary school, Dr. Sherman went on to complete a rotating small animal medicine and surgery internship at BluePearl Specialty and Emergency Pet Hospital in Tampa, FL. Since finishing her internship, she has worked as an emergency clinician, providing expert care during critical moments.

Outside of her veterinary work, Dr. Sherman has a passion for photography and enjoys capturing the world around her. She also loves spending quality time with her beagle and cat, who are her loyal companions.
