

Natalie Guevara, DVM, MPH

Oncology

Dr. Natalie Guevara is a dedicated hospitalist specializing in radiation oncology. In her role, she works closely with our remote radiation oncologists, providing hands-on clinical examinations and managing potential radiation-induced side effects. Dr. Guevara also serves as a vital point of care for pet parents, offering expert guidance and support throughout the treatment process. She earned her Doctor of Veterinary Medicine from the University of Georgia.